Subj: Designation as a Proven Subspecialist (Intelligence)

1. The Fiscal Year 1973 Intelligence Subspecialty Board, composed entirely of senior officers knowledgeable in the intelligence field, has examined your record and determined that your talents in intelligence represent a special asset to the Navy. As a result of your experience and quality of performance, the Board has identified you as a Proven Subspecialist (Intelligence) and you are hereby so designated. Maintenance of this designator is subject to review by future boards convened for this purpose.

2. This recognition indicates that you have such overall performance and leadership, as well as depth of expertise in the intelligence field, that your talents will be specifically utilized and developed in order to insure the future progress of the Navy in the field of intelligence. You, your detailer, and the Intelligence Subspecialty Manager will all have an integral part to play in your future assignments.

3. A copy of this letter will be placed in your official record so that future promotion and selection boards will know of the special value of your contribution and potential to the Navy, and that you have proven ability in your field of subspecialization.
